NEW HERE?

Three things people ask before their first Sunday

What do I wear?

Whatever you own. You'll see suits and you'll see jeans in the same pew.

What about my kids?

Bring them. There's Godly Play for the little ones, Sunday School for grades 1–5, and nobody minds noise.

Do I have to believe it all?

No. This congregation holds a wide range of politics and theology. You are welcome wherever you are.

OUT IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Most of what we do happens outside the building

A summer camp, an after-school program, a free store, and a block party that closes the street.

Compassion Camp

Summer day camp for children entering 4K through 5th grade, built on kindness and hands-on service.

CAMP DETAILS

Good Neighbour Exchange

Two donation days, then a free store day. Everything costs nothing and nobody is asked why they came.

EXCHANGE DETAILS

Kindness World Explorers

After school on Wednesdays for elementary students. $20 a month, snack included.

PROGRAM DETAILS

Note: the three photographs above are from Compassion Camp — the only congregation photography currently on the site is the single worship image used in this hero.

BS

Becky Schuppman

CHILDREN'S MUSIC DIRECTOR

Becky directs the children's choir, which sings in worship each month and presents the Christmas pageant every December. She works as a medical secretary and has two children.

ELECTED LEADERSHIP

Session & Deacons

Session

The elected board of elders, responsible for the spiritual life, mission, and governance of the church. Elders serve three-year terms and lead alongside the pastor.

CONTACT THE SESSION

Deacons

Our ministry of care — visiting members, walking with families through illness and loss, and serving as "deacon buddies" to the children of the church through the year.
